REPUDIATING DEMOCRACY.

And now the first Democratic sheet is engaged in repudiating itself and its attitude during the last campaign. It makes this crushing remark: "WHEN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY SHALL BECOME THE APOLOGISTS FOR THE TARIFF, WHO ARE DEMOCRATS IN NAME BUT REPUBLICANS AT HEART, and tackle the tariff with old time courage of the true Democrat, it will mean," We are led to the conclusion that the Democratic party in the last campaign is believed to have been insincere in the last campaign. That appears to be the estimate the Democratic paper placed on it, and it also appears that the sheet is even trying to read those out of what it chooses to term the Democratic party.

It certainly is significant of the hopelessness of the Democratic party, when its organs less than two months after a great national defeat undertakes to berate the faithful who sink or swim, live or die, regard it their duty to vote the ticket because it bore the name, Democratic. Also in this connection it is not a fact that it posed as the Democratic party and whose platform the Democratic papers worked diligently to support declared that protection was robbery? Did not the candidates themselves publicly subscribe to that? Did they not stomp the country on that issue? The people repelled them and their dangerous doctrine, and now comes along a Democratic paper and berates these same candidates and all those who voted for them, because they did exactly what the sheet contents must be done to succeed.

It looks very much like defeat had done more than to crush them in spirit. It seems to have even brought on such a degree of anguish of soul that what mind was left after the battle has been so bedebbled that the little lump of gray matter is ready to disintegrate to such an extent as to make a fit subject for an insane asylum.

The esteemed Wheeling Register appears to have awakened at last to the fact that there is no Democratic party any more. It shows that it has such knowledge, when it appeals "to all good citizens irrespective to party affiliations to attend the Democratic suggestion meetings" up there for the purpose of nominating a municipal ticket. In making the appeal it seems to have a ruse in view, that is, it wants to allure men from other political parties under the pretense of good government that in the end the Democratic party may be revived. The time was, when the Register was indifferent about other than Democrats voting the tickets it supported, but things have changed and they are all new now. It is scarcely probable, however, that the people of Wheeling will lose their good sense and do something so rash as helping to resurrect the Democratic party.

We all remember at what an early date in the recent campaign the Democratic papers began their tirade of abuse, slander and prejudice against the Republican party. They opened it up months before the campaign opened and kept diligently at it even to the very last day of the campaign. They had the idea that was the way to win, and the awful blow the people gave them election day seems not to have knocked that idea out of their thick skulls, for they are even this early pursuing the same policy as to the municipal election next spring. Under such circumstances it appears the people will have to use a club on them next time to get that idea away from them, and figuratively speaking that is exactly what will be done.

I would be much more grateful for the Democratic sheets to cheerfully submit to the will of the people instead of berating them in their scorn, which seems to become more intensified every day. But, such an awful ulcer was put on the Democratic party election day by the American people that the puss only aggravates all the more as it runs out and spreads. Poor fellows! They seem not able to help it and the people may as well just let them have it out. When they get ready to dry their tears and stop their whining the people will be ready to give them another that will last them to their dying day, although it is believed in most places that they are now indulging in their death throes.

The Democratic clique held star-chamber meetings last year as early as the month of January to make up its municipal ticket, as well as its county ticket. It is great on doing things like it says it has always done them, to say nothing about the song and dance it puts up about clinging to the ways of our forefathers. This being so and there being only another moon until January, the clique is supposed to be getting busy.

The Democratic Harrison County Herald is scheduled to make a break most any time now in favor of the Democratic clique ticket for next spring. But, it is even intimated that it some of the late Democratic candidates had their way they would break that sheet's neck. Well, there is really none to blame except the collusionists.

With all this talk over the country about a reorganization of the Democratic party, we have heard nothing about any such local movement. It looks like there is to be nothing of the sort and that the Democratic clique will see to it that it continues to dominate local Democracy, if there be such a thing in existence in this section.

Some Cartoonists.
Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, is reported to have given up the idea of putting the cartoonists out of business. Not out of consideration for the Governor, for he acted in too childish a manner to deserve any, but for the good of the general public, it is to be regretted that he was not able to overwhelm a great many of the pretenders in art. DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH

Hyomei, the Only Guaranteed Cure For Catarrh.
No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians and is prescribed by them generally.

The only way to cure catarrh and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomei.
This treatment has been so successful in curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by Sturm & Co. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money in case it does not benefit. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.
